Album Release

Music from the Caucasus - The Archive of ORED Recordings, 2013-2023

CeMig-Members Bulat Khalilov and Timur Kodzoko published a collection of music recordings from the North-Caucasus region with ORED Recordings.

You can find the album here: Music from the Caucasus – The Archive of ORED Recordings, 2013–2023 | TAL

"The Archive of ORED Recordings, 2013–2023' showcases research of communal gatherings, local festivities or family meetings in 15 intimate snapshots of a vibrant, alive culture, spanning a cappella folksong, percussive improvisation, and enchanting instrumental pieces for horns and strings that recall to more casual ears myriad styles from surrounding regions, but pronounced with their own accent, making for a fascinating set to both casual and studious ears."

New Podcast

Global Perspectives on Migration: Fieldwork, Law, and Inequality

In this episode of the "ENLIGHT insights: knowledge unpacked" podcast Maud Martens (PhD candidate, Ghent University) and Sebastian Benedikt (PhD candidate, Göttingen University) from the ENLIGHT project Imagine: Interdisciplinary Migration Network for Equitable Future share insights from their fieldwork, reflecting on their direct work with people on the move and discussing the legal and societal structures of migration, as well as the major challenges and barriers shaping these experiences.
