UTDT at a glance

Founded in 1991, the Universidad Torcuato Di Tella is a non-profit institution focused on the Social Sciences. With undergraduate and graduate programs in Architecture, Business, Economics, Design, Digital Technology, History, International Studies, Law, and Political Science, it is recognized for its academic excellence, renowned faculty, and global perspective. UTDT is consistently ranked among the top universities in Argentina and the region.

Through more than 140 collaboration agreements with leading universities in five continents, UTDT offers a diverse learning and research environment for those students who will contribute to society and make a difference in the world.

Accredited by CONEAU and AMBA, UTDT is part of recognized international organizations and networks such as: CFA Institute; CTLS – Center for Transnational Legal Studies; PIM - Partnership in International Management; SELA - Yale University's Seminar in Latin America on Constitutional and Political Theory; SUI IURIS - Ibero-American Law Schools Association; and the United Nations' University Network for Sustainable Development.

The Business School at Universidad Torcuato Di Tella is among the top schools in major national and regional rankings. Its 27 full-time faculty hold doctoral degrees from Columbia University, Harvard University, HEC Paris, Princeton University, Warwick School of Business, and Universidad de Buenos Aires, to name a few. The school has 1230 graduate and 1360 undergraduate students and 72 international collaboration agreements with some of the most prestigious universities around the globe.

Located in Buenos Aires, which is consistently ranked by QS as the best student city in Ibero-America, and among the top in the world, UTDT welcomes students who are eager to learn in a friendly yet rigorous environment.

UTDT Business School students may pursue double degree programs with HEC Paris; Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile; Fundação Getulio Vargas; Universitat Pompeu Fabra - Barcelona School of Management, and special programs through a collaboration with Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Housing

UTDT is a non-residential campus. Accepted students receive information about different accommodation options in their welcome packages. Also, through a closed Facebook group they may find roommates and receive recommendations from current and past incoming students. Neighbourhoods preferred by our students are: Belgrano, Cañitas, Palermo, and Recoleta.

Immigration

Students will need to obtain a visa prior to entering Argentina. Please refer to this link for further information.

Health insurance

A comprehensive Argentine health insurance is mandatory to register at UTDT. The University suggests that students obtain the services offered by William Hope. Please refer to this link for further information.

Estimated monthly living costs

These costs are included merely as a guide, as the lifestyles of students vary greatly.

When budgeting, students should also consider costs related to visa, international travel, etc.

- › Room, board, and transportation: U$D 700
- › Health insurance: U$D 85
- › Books and supplies: U$D 15

Buenos Aires

Known as the Paris of Latin America partly due to its architectural beauty, the city is a welcoming hub for international students. Recognized as the "Top City in Latin America in the Global Talent Competitiveness Index" (INSEAD, Adecco, Human Capital Leadership Institute) and the "Most Global City in Latin America" (AT Kearney Global Cities Ranking), it is one of the world's richest cities for theatre and bookstores, and also a major destination for art, tango, gastronomy, night life and sports. Furthermore, the city is consistently ranked by QS as the best student city in Ibero-America.
