CeMIS

Centre for Modern Indian Studies

COLLOQUIUM

Wednesdays 4.15pm – 5.45pm

WINTER

Room 0.138, Waldweg 26

SEMESTER

2026-27

November

18 Saeed Ahmad
O.P. Jindal Global University
The Civic and the Sacred: Monumentality and Urban Space in Amritsar

December

2 Anagha Tambe
Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU)
"Not Your Kamwali/ Maid" (2026, 35 min), Directed by Atish Sarkar and Produced by the Department of Women and Gender Studies, SPPU
Film Screening and Discussion
In cooperation with the study program „Gender Studies" and the Chair in Sociology of Labour at Göttingen University

9 Rohini Mitra
CeMIS
(In)visibility Politics and Fragmented Refugee Governance in India

16 Srirupa Roy
CeMIS
The Bharatiya Intellectual Project: How Knowledge Ecosystems Mainstream the Far-Right

January

13 Johannes Quack
University of Zurich
Casted Lives. Individual, Social, and Existential Perspectives

20 Patrick Eisenlohr
CeMIS
An Atmospheric Continuum of Meaning: Sonic and Discursive Dimensions of Prophetic Devotion in Mauritian Muslim Recitational Practice

27 Ursula Daxecker
Max Planck Institute for Political and Social Science
The Logic of Party Violence: Insights from West Bengal, India
Book manuscript (with Neeraj Prasad, University of Amsterdam)

February

3 Sebastian Vollmer
CeMIS
Global Poverty and the Cost of a Healthy Diet

10 Mishal Khan
CeMIS
Empire of Innovation: Rethinking Slavery, Abolition and Freedom in British India and Beyond

For additional information contact iris.karakus@cemis.uni-goettingen.de www.uni-goettingen.de/cemis

CeMIS | centre for modern indian studies

GEORG-AUGUST-UNIVERSITÄT GÖTTINGEN