

Advertisement: Student Assistant at the Diversity Research Institute for the cooperative project „Polarization of Society: The Example of the Expansion of EU Directives on Ensuring Human Rights of Sexual Minorities“

The Diversity Research Institute at the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Göttingen is seeking a student assistant from the earliest possible date (pending funds) until 30 November 2021:

Student assistant with bachelor's degree for up to 25 hours/month working in the cooperative project „Polarization of Society: The Example of the Expansion of EU Directives on Ensuring Human Rights of Sexual Minorities“ (PoSoSeMi)

Tasks shall include:

- Order and pick up literature from the library;
- Organize literature in Citavi;
- Compile bibliography;
- Support in the preparation and implementation of two international workshops;
- Proofread for typos and simple formatting errors.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree preferably in a social science;
- Currently studying at the Faculty of Social Sciences;
- Very good English language skills (must; German optional)
- Computer skills (MS Office, Citavi);
- Interest in the topics of the Institute.

Application

If you would like to join our team and gain insight into the practical work of a research institute, please address your written application to Dr. Halyna Leontiy (halyna.leontiy@uni-goettingen.de) by 15 February 2021. We ask you to please not send a photo.

We invite applications from people of all nationalities, religions, genders, sexual orientations and ages. The University aims to employ more severely disabled people. People with severe disabilities will be given preferential consideration in the event of equal qualification.

We look forward to your application!