

Doctoral Seminar WiSe 2019-2020
Jean Monnet Chair for European Union and
Global Sustainable Development Through Law
Department of International Economic and Environmental Law
Prof. Dr. Peter-Tobias Stoll
First Session: 28 November 2019

Room: Blauer Turm, Seminarraum 13 Floor

Thursday, 28 November 2019

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 13:00 – 13:15 | Welcome by Prof. Dr. Peter-Tobias Stoll
Introduction and Updates |
| 13:15 – 14:00 | “The Escazú Convention in context: public participation in environmental decisions in Latin America”, by Mario Aguilera. |
| 14:00 – 14:45 | "The Evolving of Indonesian Indigenous Concept and Its Contestation to the International Law" by Chairul Fahmi. |
| 14:45 – 15:00 | Coffee Break |
| 15:00 – 15:45 | “The role of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights in the recognition of territorial rights: interpretation, reparation and impact” by Gabriela Cristina Braga Navarro (Ph.D. student Goethe Universität Frankfurt). |
| 15:45 – 16:30 | “Interrelation and Interaction of Legal Instruments in Climate Change Mitigation” by Lennart Wegener. |
| 16:30 – 16:45 | Coffee Break |
| 16:45 – 17:30 | “Tragedy of the Artic Ocean” by Laura Wanner. |
| 17:30 – 18:15 | “The untapped potential of international secondary law: forest protection through COPs Decisions and Resolutions of forest related MEAs” by Yilly Vanessa Pacheco. |
| 18:15 – 18:30 | Closing remarks |