

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen Module B.WIWI-SDS.0002: Sustainable Development Studies II		5 C 2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: By end of this course, students will be familiar with basic theoretical concepts and empirical research in sustainable development studies from a regional and global perspective. To achieve that, the course will acquaint students with basic concepts in the area of globalization and development. The topics covered will vary from time to time, always focusing on new and emerging issues in sustainable development studies from a regional and global perspective.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 122 h
Course: B.WIWI-SDS.0002.Sem Sustainable Development Studies II (Seminar) Contents: The seminar will cover topics in international development with a focus on pressing issues and debates, for example, in the areas of: • macroeconomic policies, • debt and economic crises, • free and fair trade, • political and civil liberties, • climate change and the environment, • conflict, • and international aid. The students work independently on a topic in sustainable development studies from a regional or global perspective using seminal works and recent developments in the literature and prepare a term paper (book review) on a publication that meets scientific standards. They present the publication in the seminar to the other participants and engage in a subsequent critical discussion.		2 WLH
Examination: Term Paper (max. 5 pages) B.WIWI-SDS.0002.Mp: Sustainable Development Studies II Examination prerequisites: Regular attendance Examination requirements: Independent review of a selected publication in written form.		3 C
Examination: Presentation (approx. 20 minutes) B.WIWI-SDS.0002.0: Sustainable Development Studies II Examination prerequisites: Regular attendance Examination requirements: Critical presentation of a selected publication.		2 C
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: B.WIWI-SDS.0001 Sustainable Development Studies I
Language:	Person responsible for module:

English, German	Prof. Dr. Andreas Fuchs
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: twice	Recommended semester: 2
Maximum number of students: 35
Additional notes and regulations: The language of teaching is English; examinations can be written in German by agreement.	