

Göttingen, 8. Februar 2024

Student assistant vacancies at the Chair of Development Economics/CeMIS

The Chair of Development Economics/Centre for Modern Indian Studies (CeMIS), Prof. Dr. Sebastian Vollmer, is looking for one or more student assistants to support the Chair with research- and teaching-related tasks (flexible working hours).

Working hours	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 20 or 40 hours per month</li><li>• Working times are generally flexible</li></ul>
Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Support preparation of courses</li><li>• Literature and data search</li><li>• Data cleaning</li><li>• Support organization of events and small administrative tasks</li></ul>
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Proficiency in English</li><li>• Command of German not strictly necessary</li><li>• Ability to work independently, commitment, team spirit and flexibility</li><li>• Familiarity with and interest in topics in development economics, and especially global health</li><li>• Good academic achievements</li><li>• Stata, R and/or IT skills are an asset</li></ul>

If you are interested in this position, please send your application to Sebastian Vollmer (svollmer@uni-goettingen.de) until April 7th, 2024. Applications will be processed on a rolling basis, so please feel free to send us your application sooner. Your application package should consist of your CV and most recent transcript of records. Please also state whether you are available for more than one semester.

Do not hesitate to contact us if you have further questions. We are looking forward to your application!