Dear exam participant,

during today's exam you have been caught using forbidden auxiliaries (cheat sheet, smartphone, smartwatch etc.).

You are free to choose whether you would like to continue the exam or if you would like to abort the exam ahead of schedule and leave the exam room.

You can hand in a written statement referring to the accused attempt at deception at the examination office. A written decision referring to the attempt at deception will be send to you within the next days.

Your exam will only be released for grading if your written statement is going to cause a withdrawal of the accused attempt at deception.

Kind regards

Your Examination Office
